LION'S Roar

"FRIENDSHIP"

Friendship's flowers never fade
Till memories grow dim;
For, a man may die and yet may live,
If you have made a friend of him.
For friendship's like a flower bright
Though blooming long or for a night.
As long as memories grip the past
'Tis a treasure that will ever last.
Material things will pass away
And power will soon run its brief day;
But, friendships live long in the heart
Because of you they are a part.

BASEBALL . . .

Under the firm guiding hand of Coach Ekblom, the aid of Dave Lindberg's tireless arm, and with the invaluable support of the seniors, this year's baseball team compiled the finest record in the school's history, finishing with eleven wins and two losses in league play, and twelve wins and three losses over all. The team showed it was destined for further honors than the winning of the league crown when it twice defeated Millbury and Westboro, the two closest rivals for the championship.

The culmination of the year's efforts came when the team was invited to compete in District Three. The team's first game was against Milford. Bob Roselund pitched the entire game and allowed only one earned run which was supplemented by two unearned runs, which gave Milford a three to two victory.

The 1965 Lion's Roar!

The Class of 1965
West Boylston Junior-Senior High School
West Boylston, Massachusetts

Perhaps the most memorable years in our lives are those we spend in school. Our education has opened countless doors—doors of opportunity, of knowledge, of understanding.

Education has helped us to obtain knowledge, the knowledge gained by entering an entirely new world of language, history, mathematics and literature. Education has opened the door of understanding, understanding of the world around us, of the people that make this world—its yesterdays, todays, and tomorrows—and perhaps most important of all, an understanding of ourselves.

The social contacts developed through classroom and extracurricular activities have provided us with many wonderful and lasting memories, all of which have helped us to prepare for the years ahead.

The purpose of this 1965 Lion's Roar is to unfold for us in years to come the recollections of our four years at West Boylston Jr.-Sr. High.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1965, would like to dedicate our Lion's Roar to a man we feel has not only won the respect of our entire class but also has given us much in the way of guidance and understanding. He is a person who is interested in every student's activities and future plans. He always recognizes his students by a solemn, respectful smile and bow of the head. In class he has an abundance of patience, and through every word he portrays his love of the subject he is teaching.

Feeling we owe much to this past advisor of the Yearbook staff and present National Honor Society advisor, we dedicate this copy of Lion's Roar to you, Mr. Nicholas Cecchini.

A TRIBUTE

There are various times . . . in the lives of all of us . . . when we are deeply affected . . . by an incident occuring to one . . . loved and respected . . . by all.

Leon Dionne was our classmate . . . two years ago . . . though unable to attend school now . . . he is still a friend . . . a companion . . . and indeed a classmate . . . for all of us.

He exemplifies for us . . . the true meaning of courage . . . the significance of life. He is a symbol . . . for us to admire . . . when the path taken in life seems difficult.

How minor our efforts seem . . . as we offer this dedication to our classmate! How humble we are . . . as we become aware of life's adversities . . . and how strengthened we become . . . in the knowledge that we have Leon as a friend.

To Leon . . . our classmate . . . our friend . . . our symbol of courage . . . we present then this tribute . . . our lives . . . have been given greater meaning . . . by our association . . . with Leon Dionne. May we always remember . . . his warm smile . . . his sense of humor . . . his friendly manner.

We do indeed present this . . . as a tribute to Leon Dionne . . . with sincere meaning . . . with real friendship . . . and with a sense of humbleness . . . we are grateful to him . . . for helping . . . to provide us with the strength . . . to face the future.

CLASS HISTORY OR A FOUR LAP RACE

Our story begins in the fall of 1961 as we all signed up to compete in the four lap race for 14 year olds. We were all freshmen then and the race was to be held in the West Boylston Jr.-Sr. High School. As the race was about to start we all thought of the many difficulties, stresses, and strains before us, but eagerly awaited the next four laps that followed.

The leading jockeys in the first lap were Terry Mulryan, President; Curt Backstrom, Vice President; Pat Condon, Secretary; and for Treasurer, Sandra Atchue.

At other tracks we found John Bancroft and Dave Lindberg beginning their careers as outstanding basketball players on the varsity team, coached by Mr. Garofoli. This was the first time in the history of the school that any Freshman colts were awarded such honors. Serving as morale-boosters were Nonie Balcom and Shirley Knox as part of a cheerleading squad that ended up a little hoarse.

As the first lap came to an end we bid farewell to the Boylstonites as their own school, Tahonto Regional, was completed. We realized early that we weren't a bunch of "quarter horses" but a group which would go all the way.

Again the class of 1965 returned to W.B.H.S. with plans for an active second lap. Among the new faces in our corrals were Joyce and Sandra Ling, Carol Ham, and Barbara Allen. We also welcomed Suzette MacDonald, Donald Gambaccini, and [illegible]llis that year. With these members in our ranks the odds makers predicted us 125-1 favorites to m[illegible]

Sitting in the press box that year was Curt Bac[illegible] Vice President; Nancy Moorefield, Secretary. Shirley Knox was elected Treasurer.

There was again great interest in what was going on at other tracks. John Bancroft and Dave Lindberg continued their accomplishments during the basketball season. Steve Lacilla and Curt Backstrom joined them on the school varsity. Backing up our stallions during the second lap were the spirited cheerleaders—our own Nonie Balcom was co-captain of the squad. Shirley Knox, Kathy Caron, and Lea Carlson also represented our class and our school as cheerleaders.

The baseball team, "The West Boylston Colt 65's" had a good average that year with Bobby Zickell and Dave Lindberg batting and Mr. Elkind coaching.

Another high spot in our sophomore lap was the arrival of the man from Balfour Jewelers. His arrival meant many hours of work by members of the class who had [illegible]rn the money to pay for the West Boylston brand which they would now wear.

[illegible] approached [illegible] of the first half of our race we looked forward to the [illegible]th many new hopes and plans for the coming year.

[illegible]rted off our junior lap with vigorous campaigns for the inside rail. Securing [illegible] positions were Robert Benedict, President; Shirley Knox and Robert Zickell were re-elected Treasurer and Vice President respectively, and Jackie DiPasquale became our new Secretary.

A few new trotters were admitted into our number that fall: Diane Blaggie, Albert Surabian, Diane Seib, John Helander, Lynn Montgomery, and Karen Welsh.

Our classmates continued to dominate all trac that year. In all we had 28 students active in the 6 varsity sports. The climax of the season was when we lost a game with the seniors by one point in the Junior-Senior basketball game.

The big social event of the year was the Junior Prom—Tara, held in the back of stable 3. Mike Hachey and Ray Meola contributed much of their time in designing and building the southern plantation, which became the central theme for the prom, while Bob Benedict opened his house for the construction of the other props. Under the direction of Jackie Di Pasquale, chairman of the decorations committee, we all pitched in to make the prom a spectacular event.

When we passed the 2/3's mark we anxiously looked ahead to next September when we would be the directors of the underclassmen.

As our fourth and final lap began it was time to see who would represent us in the winner's circle. Robert Benedict was President; Sandra Atchue was Vice President; Judy Fray was Secretary; and Shirley Knox was Treasurer.

Again varsity sports were highly successful. John Bancroft, Dave Lindberg, Pete Hollis, Bruce Fisher, Bob Benedict, and five others monopolized the boy's basketball court. In the Kentucky Derby, the sports events for girls, we were represented by Barbara Allen, Laura Kriegstrom, Susan St. George, Sharon Belacki, Kathy Atchue, Janet Copper, Nonie Balcom, and Donna Johnson.

VFH sponsored events were represented by Robert Doud at Student Government Day in Boston, Dave Lindberg at Boy's State, and Kathy Atchue our Girl's State Representative.

Our Ball "Winter by Night" with a night snow scene and music by The Commodores, was managed by Bobby Zickell and Susan Lutka. Joyce Prescott and Philip Volungis, the co-chairmen of the decorations, spent many long hours in the gym making the Senior Ball a complete success. Many thanks go to Mr. O'Connor, who helped us in solving many problems and in preparing for the big event.

Our Class Play, "Strange Boarders," was a great success with Jackie DiPasquale playing the lead role. Our thanks also go to Mr. Gaumond who worked very hard and who had patience and understanding with all of us.

Soon we will be walking down the aisles of this auditorium as students for the last time, our four laps completed. Before we graduate, we wish to thank Mr. LaPrade, Mr. O'Connor, Mr. Lepore and all the faculty for their guidance, counsel and understanding that made these four years at this high school memorable years that we will never forget.

CLASS WILL

We the class of 1965 leave this, our last will and testament, before these four years are buried in our memory.

Article 1

1. To the juniors, we leave our haughty position so that next year they can look down on the underclassmen.
2. To the sophomores, we leave some matches with instructions—"In case of fire throw in."
3. To the freshmen, we leave our superior intellect and our pity, for they have three long years to go.

Article 2

1. To Mr. Griffin, we leave the latest hit record to make the top ten—"Shape Up and Move Out."
2. To Miss Johnson, we leave all the mimeograph papers she has given us.
3. To Mr. Sullivan, we leave a Crash Helmet.
4. To Mr. Barron, we leave the sign "Mr. Barron" as seen on the "Today" show.
5. To Mr. Elkind, we leave a new book entitled, "The Art of Telling Good Jokes."
6. To Mr. Lane, we leave another yearbook to plan.
7. To Mr. Lepore, we leave an application to Worcester State.
8. To Mr. Phelps, we leave the Phelps Place sign.
9. To Mr. Wilbur, we leave a new apron for him to wear while printing the Webo.
10. To Mr. Pendleton, we leave a dirty wet towel.
11. To Mr. Cecchini, we leave this plaque over his door—"The family that studies Latin together stays together."
12. To Mr. LaPrade, we leave our thanks and a bottle of aspirin for all the headaches we caused him.

CLASS OF '65 PROPHECY

In 1620 the Pilgrims, led by Capt. Maurice Smith landed at Plymouth Rock. The great all-American Indian Chief John Orciani, accompanied by his dancing squaws Carol Varner, Elaine Ketola, Diane Blaggie, and Carol Ham were there to present Capt. Smith with a bouquet of daisies.

It wasn't long before the two peoples were together celebrating the first Thanksgiving. They were very thankful—thankful that Donald Gambaccini hadn't been the navigator, thankful that John McCormick hadn't been the interpreter, and thankful that John Milstead's pilgrim boots hadn't punctured the bottom of the boat.

The new colonies finally decided that separation from England was the only way to achieve freedom and sent mediator John "Oh-OH" Wolons over to the mother country to assure us of more confusion.

Soon, because of unfair taxation, a loyal group of American patriots led by Jay Tivnan and Stanley Andriski boarded an English ship and staged the Boston Tea Party. Because of the continuing repressive measures, a group of intellectuals led by John Geneva, Cynthia Griswold, and Jane Monroe issued our Declaration of Independence.

The Redcoat oppression led to the firing of the shot heard round the world fired by Sandra Daszuta and this soon led to the Midnight Ride of Donna Bohl.

In the war with the mother country we were fortunate to receive many foreign leaders in our camps. To name just a few, there were: Sgt. Albert Surabian . . . a hardy, sympathetic Englishman; Brigadeers Bruce Little and Benton Makela . . . two very capable, level-headed leaders; and three fearless infantry men—Phil Volungis, David Swenson, and John Flanagan.

The Constitution, drawn up soon after the War, made it possible for religions such as the West Boylston Quackers, founded by Donald Carlson, to flourish.

We won our freedom and elected our first President, Walter Rotti, who promised not to horse around. In 1794 President Rotti sent troops into the southern mountains to put down Shay's Rebellion and to capture leaders John Sepavich, Fred Rankins, John Helander, and Rocky Mercadante. The troops also rounded up illegal wig makers Brenda Latuga, Lorraine Chartier, and Lynne Gray, who were heating the wigs and selling them to Indians—Paul Christo, Edward Marteneit, and John McCarthy—as wigwarms.

After the War of 1812 General Andrew Jackson was elected President. President Jackson found it necessary to turn for aid to his famous "Kitchen Cabinet" of Joe Mazzoleni, Kathleen Powers, and Diane Migneault.

Everyone was urged to join the westward march. A wagon train led by Gwen Trainor left West Boylston and headed westward. Our wagon train was infested with dogs and one of our party offered to keep them trained and under control. Because of his devotion and fine work, when this train reached its destination, a building was named after him. It was called the St. Bernard Lorge. The wagon train met with many a hardship and adventure. To list a few: Wayne Morse caught a code; while crossing the Arizona desert Michael Hachey was looking for gold, water, or Goldwater; Bruce Fisher was the playboy of the wagon train; among the people to get married were John Bancroft and Karen Welch; and Peter Hollis married Barbara Day and all their children were called holidays. Our treasurer Shirley got in a fight with an Indian; after she won and the train had gone, there stood a sign reading, "Here fought Knox".

Settlement in the west was rapid. Towns were frequented by such ruffians as "sideburns" Steve Lacilla and the duo of shotgun Sharon Belacki and Jesse James Bartlett! Dance halls were found on almost every street. To name a few there was the one founded by Sandy and Joyce called the double "L", the little Ling; the Bird Cage owned by Robin Bjorn; and the Detention Hall founded by Bill Savage, Joyce Sherman could usually be found hostessing in any one of the above places. Also there were the adventureous "49ers"—Kathy Caron, Carol Lopardo, Cindy Johnston, and Linda Johnson.

As time proceeded, a new era of inventions swept the country. To name a few: Bobby Benedict invented Elmer's Glue so little kids could have Fudd; Alexander Bell on first testing his telephone heard, "Hello, this is Cici McQuiston. I'd like to request a song for Lynn Ciociolo and Judy Gremo"; Ed Foster was a hobo and in every town the people would yell "all right Foster, Farther" thus he invented the Foster Farther Organization; L'Isle Campbell invented the megaphone; Ray Meola, who always had a lot of wrong answers on tests, made it easier for teachers to correct his papers by inventing the "X" Ray machine; and Janet Copper invented the first computer called the CopperMind.

Hit tunes of this time were: Suzette MacDonald's "Old MacDonald Had a Farm", Patty Hall's "Hall, Hall the Gang's All Here," and Bob Hohne's "Hohne, Hohne On the Range."

Time flew along rapidly and soon we were in the 20th century. Barbara Strong, Judy Fray, and Susan Lutka, because of their soft voices were founders of the first speakeasies. Janice Noble, Sue St. George and Lea Carlson worked tirelessly on a woman's rights campaign that wanted, among other things, the right to bare arms.

In the early years of the new century, a Presidential race was on between Chuck Akstin and Donald Bavosi. Paul Jacobson was the manager of Mr. Bavosi's campaign and, as was Paul's custom, he sat back and watched the race. President Bavosi won and issued his famous "14 Joints," the top meeting places on his list. Among them were Barbara Allen's and Jackie DiPasquale's Pajama Parties, Joyce Prescott's Penny Arcade, Joy Castagnetti's Pizza Shop, Laura Kriegstrom's Brown Derby, and Mary Tambolleo and Judy Wilmot's chain of Casual Corners.

Dave Lindberg was the first, as usual, to fly across the Atlantic; he was followed closely in an airplane by Bob Zickell and David Putnam, who made sure his arms didn't get tired. Now that he was famous David had to have many servants and aids: David McCool was his cool Aid, Brad Shaw his charade, and of course Donna and Eleanor were his Johnson and Johnson band aids. David returned to the states where he was greeted by Ronald Beachy and his wife Winona Balcom on their estate, York Beach.

During this time, three of our number lost a considerable amount of money through a bad business deal. The three were Gisela Bauer and Rusty Glynn and Donald Bullens, her bauery boys.

In 1929 Doug Ramsey and Kevin Macklin were driving by Billy Viano's beef shop when their brakes gave way and they crashed into the building, causing the great stock market crash.

During World War II Commander Donald Johnson came upon the idea of allowing women to serve in our armed services. Helen De Marco, Sharon Orciani, Kathy Crowley, and Beverly Kimball became members of this shining group know as Johnson's Wacs.

N.A.T.O., the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, was founded and named after its creator, Marie Nadeau.

In the early 1970's we were in a hot conflict with Russia. As a prelude to war, the Russians told us to get our dukes up; so we promptly launched a space ship with Terry Mulryan in it. Accompanying Terry were Joanne Marrone, who was in charge of fuel; Sandy and Kathy Atchue, who were in charge of all space appliances; and the backbone of the operation, Bobby Roselund.

Back in the states, there was another presidential election and Lyn Montgomery became our first woman President. Her cabinet included Nancy Moorefield as Secretary of Agriculture and Shirley DePatsy as Secretary of Defense.

No sooner had the new government gotten started when Donald Clark bumped against Jackie Bissell's advanced science fair project, and with a whistle, Bissell's missile took off and started the battle which resulted in the destruction of all but us five:

The new 1964 Cross Country Coach, Mr. Richard O'Connor, was faced with a rebuilding year because only one senior, Dave Lindberg, was back from last year's league championship team.

The 1964 record of 2 wins against 7 losses was much better than it indicates. Mr. O'Connor did a fine job and worked the team hard, and this was exemplified by the fact that they were never out of any race. The team was seemingly plagued with bad luck all season. They lost twice to Algonquin, and once to Tahanto, Westboro, and Nashoba—all by less than five points! The highlight of the season was a 33-39-58 win over Oxford and St. Marys of Milford in a triangular meet. Outstanding performances were turned in time and time again by Captain Dick Castonguay, Joel Pasquale, Peter Karras, Walter Klar, and Dave Lindberg. The first four are all underclassmen and will be back next year to lead the harriers to what promises to be a very successful season.

Kennedy, K. O'Connor, L. Sylvester, Mr. Wills (Coach), J. Hunt, F. Mandeville, R. Shepard, S. Quist, C. Allen, R. Johnson, W. Tobin.

The initial soccer team of W.B.H.S. finished its first season very successfully. The Lions' record of three wins against two losses included two wins over Barre, two losses to Charlton and an upset victory over experienced Narragansett Regional. The high point of the season was the team's 3-2 conquest of heavily favored Narragansett. Although giving away much in size and experience, the "never say die" Lions pulled ahead in the closing seconds, thus assuring the team of a winning season.

The loss of five senior lettermen (Bruce Little, David McCool, John Sepavich, Maurice Smith, and Bob Zickell) leaves the team a little "lean", but also makes room for aspiring underclassmen. With a year of experience behind them, and behind the enthusiastic and dedicated coaching of Mr. Wills, next year's soccer team appears a cinch to improve on its maiden season's record.

Under the leadership of Senior Co-Captains Dave Lindberg and John Bancroft the West Boylston Lions completed their best season ever in 1965. The season's record was twenty-two victories against only three defeats. In the process, the '65 Lions annexed the championship of the Small Schools Division of the Clark Tournament and reached the semi-finals of the District 3 Playoffs. Although the season had many highpoints, a late season victory over Leicester and the destruction of Auburn in the quarter-final round of the District 3 were perhaps the most satisfying. The Leicester victory avenged an early season loss to the Wolverines which had snapped a seven game Lions' winning streak. The only other losses suffered by West Boylston all season were a heart-breaking 64-62 loss to Algonquin, which dropped the Lions into second place, behind Leicester, in the Southern Worcester County League and a defeat at the hands of the eventual District 3 Champions, St. Johns, in the semi-final round of that tournament. This last defeat stopped a winning skein of ten games.

1965 will be remembered as the year that West Boylston finally won a Clark Tournament Championship. After two years of losing out in the final game of this tourney, the Lions defeated 1964 Champions Nipmuc (84-56), the Warren Eagles (75-71), and Narragansett Regional (67-53) to run off with the coveted title which had so long eluded them.

In the all-important District 3 Playoffs West Boylston came very close to becoming the "cinderella" team as they competed for the chance to represent Central Massachusetts in the State Schoolboy Championships. In the opening round the Lions won convincingly over Gardner by the score of 69-45. In the quarter-final round the Lions drew as their opponent the Central Massachusetts Conference Champions, Auburn. Playing in the unfamiliar Shrewsbury High School gym, West Boylston surprised the county by walloping favored Auburn 79-51. In the semi-final round the combination of a cold-scoring night and a tournament-wise St. Johns team turned back the "rags-to-riches" hopes of the West Boylston quintet.

The 1965 season was a tribute to the determined play of the almost-exclusively senior varsity and the spirited coaching of Mr. Garofoli. Together they convincingly put West Boylston on the basketball map.

Although the girls' varsity basketball team lost more games then they won, (Season's Record: 3-10), the season was much more successful than the record indicates. Under new Coach, Miss Richard, the team worked well together and toward the end of the season this teamwork began to gell into a smoothly working offense. Losing only Seniors Janet Copper and Barbara Allen, next year's club should benefit greatly from the experience gained this season. The 1965 team would like to use this opportunity to thank Miss Richard for her patience with us and for the tremendous time and effort she spent on our behalf.

This past year has proved to be very successful for the Junior Class. Our main objective this year was to raise money for the Junior Prom in May. Our candy sale went well, showing that all the Juniors participate as a whole class.

Already committees have been working on the Prom. It has a Persian theme, and the decorations have been planned. If all goes well, it should be a very successful event.

Also this year, the Junior Class has contributed some great athletes in field hockey, soccer, cross country, and basketball. The Junior Class is proud of its members and is proud to belong to West Boylston High School.

As Sophomores, we have increased our class treasury to an all time high; this money will be put to good use when we are Juniors and Seniors. Our representation has been heavy in boy's sports with Paul Sheperd, Glen Hermes, Dwight Howe, Phil Lagestrom, Peter Karas, Walter Klar, Danny Rosis, and many others participating. Our girls have also done well in sports: Sophomore members of girls' teams are Gloria Austin, Judy Fitts, Kerry Glynn, Pat Connors, Kathy O'Connor, Barbara Kimball, Rita Riganati, and more. A large percentage of Sophomores reach the honor roll, and every school organization has at least one Sophomore in it.

We look forward to our Junior year and the Junior Prom.

Our first year in high school has started out to be a very successful one. The outstanding fact of our class is the number of students participating in sports. Among these are: "Moose" Fisher, Reggie Fisk, Andy Kelly, Judson Hunt, Kevin O'Connor, Bobby McCabe, Richard Shepard, Richard Yahnian, Michael Berry, Tommy Hughes, Judy Allen, Linda Johnson, Ellen Miller, Nancy Ela, Janice Johnson, Lyn Conforti, Sheila Martineit, Mary Mulryan, Nancy Veshi, Jane Holmberg, Karen Leonardi, and Susan Spiro and Christine Smith as Cheerleaders.

We wish to thank the Seniors, our class officers, and our class advisors for helping us through our first year in high school.

The preceding one-hundred fifty-one pages represent many hundreds of hours of time and effort by a great many persons. I should like to use this page to pay tribute to a few of them.

This year's Lions Roar has been a very pleasant one to be associated with, thanks mainly to the faithful and enthusiastic work done by this year's triumvirate of Editors, Kathy Atchue, Jackie DiPasquale, and Nancy Moorefield. Fortunately they had a fine staff to help them out with the many tasks a yearbook entails. A special word of praise is due for Business Managers John McCormick and Billy Savage, who were responsible for raising the considerable amount of money that this book represents. And I am sure they join with me in thanking the Advertisers who made this book all possible.

A special thank you also goes to the Faculty and Administration of West Boylston Junior-Senior High School. Without their patience and cooperation this book would not have been possible.

And thank you also to Mercer Studios, the Official Photographer of the Class of '65, and in particular to Mort Goldfader who spent untold hours taking, developing and delivering most of the hundreds of fine pictures that enliven the pages of the Lions Roar.

Thank you, too, to Taylor Publishing Company and their representative in this area, Bill Rowan. More than just a Publisher's Representative, Bill always found time to help us over the many problems that are bound to crop up in connection with any endeavor of this size.

As we prepare to send this final page of the 1965 Lions Roar to the publisher, I find myself hoping that in between the covers of this book we have accurately chronicled the personalities and activities of the Class of '65. For they are the real heroes and heroines of this yearbook. In the years to come I sincerely hope that they will find this, their yearbook, a true reflection of their high school years.

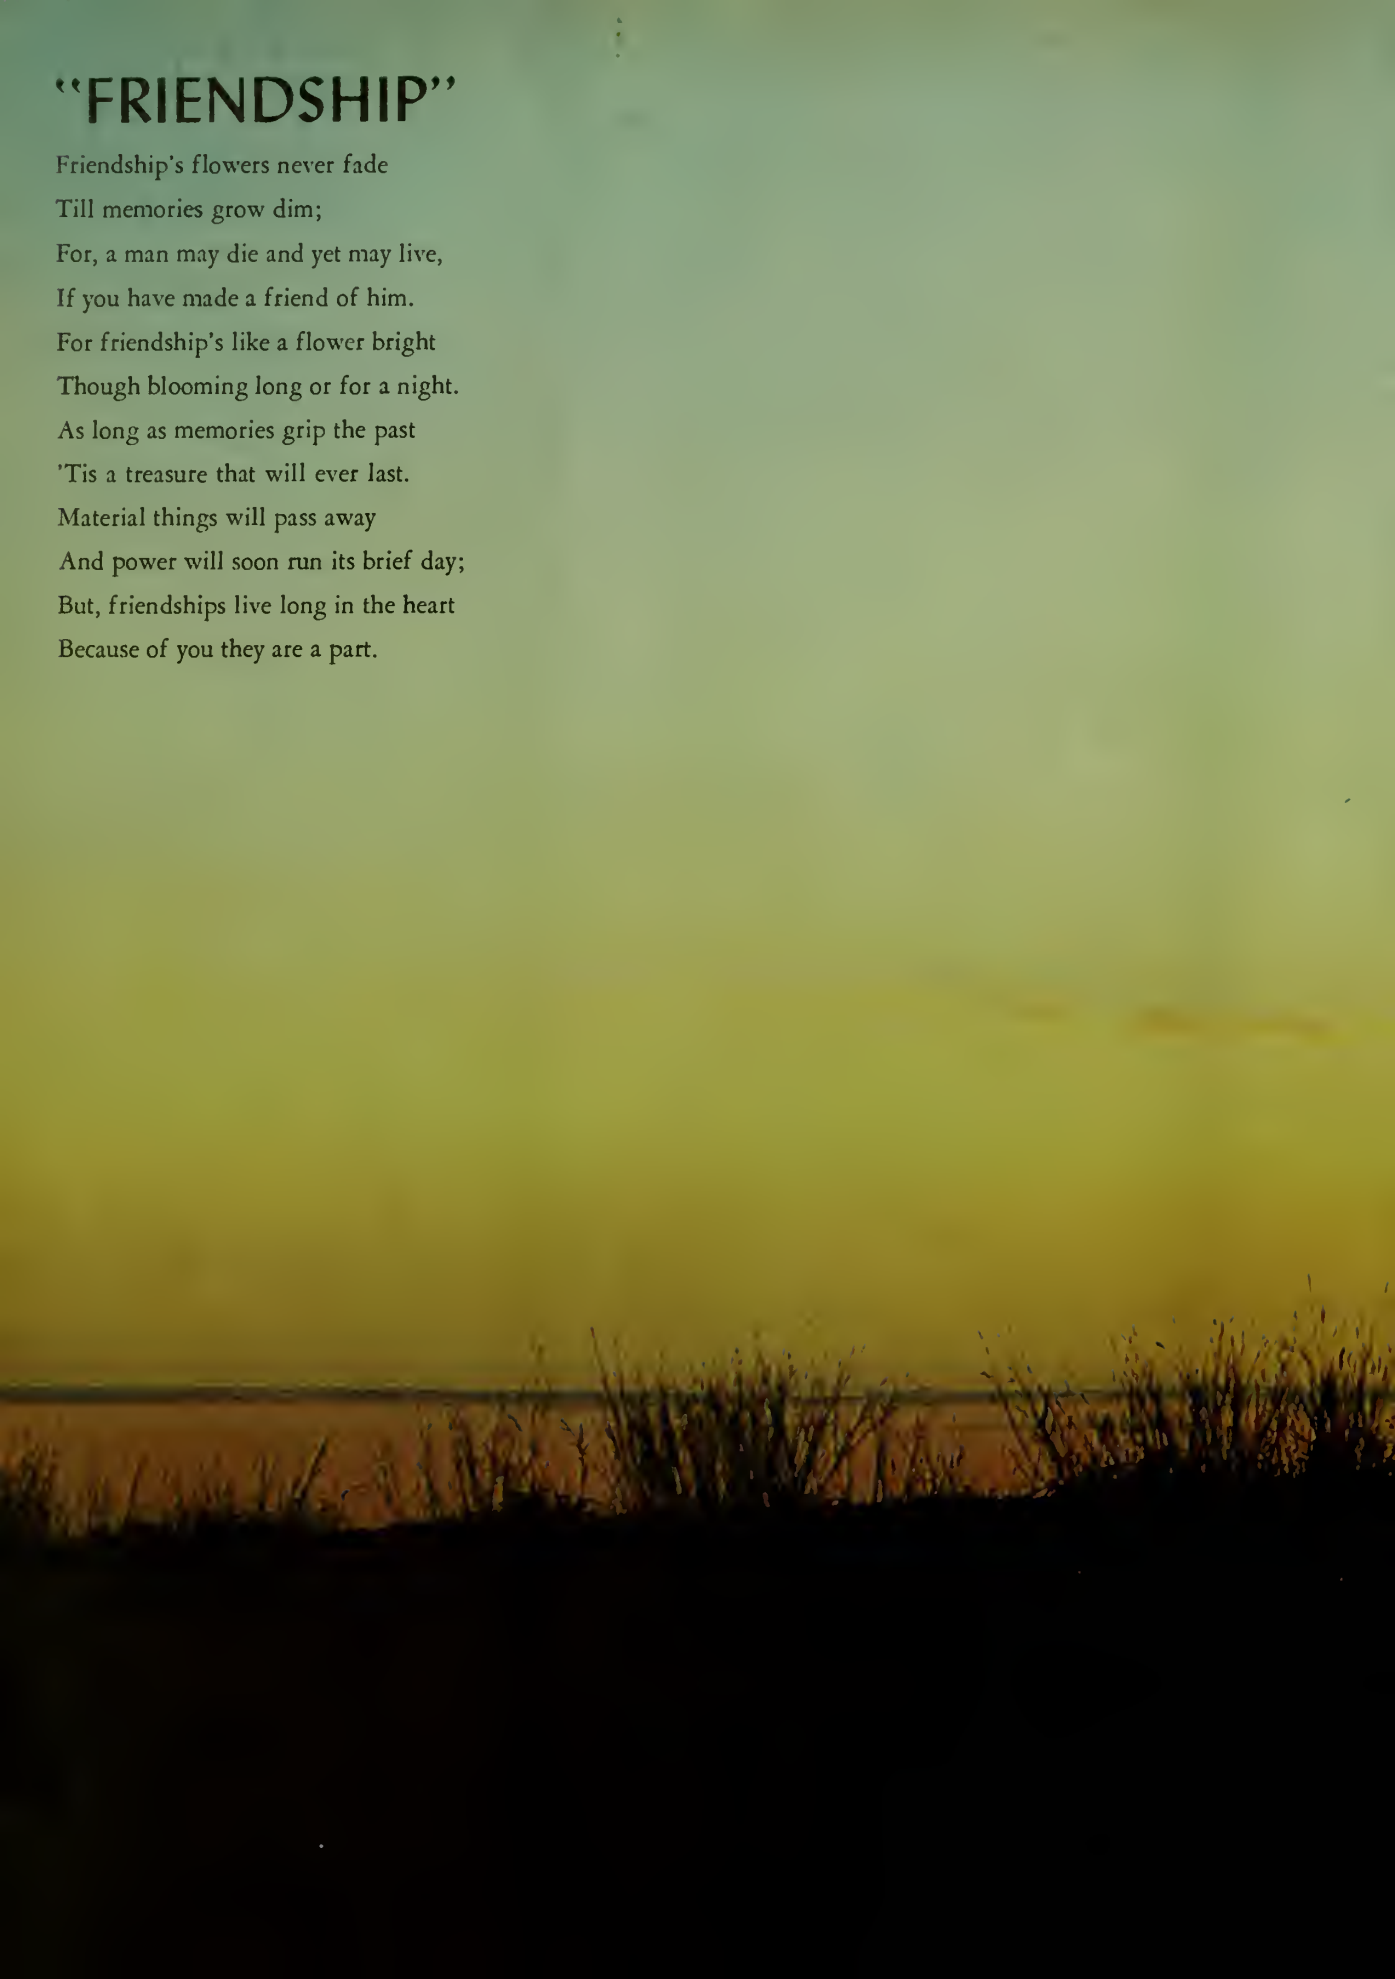
"FRIENDSHIP"


Friendship's flowers never fade
Till memories grow dim;
For, a man may die and yet may live,
If you have made a friend of him.
For friendship's like a flower bright
Though blooming long or for a night.
As long as memories grip the past
'Tis a treasure that will ever last.
Material things will pass away
And power will soon run its brief day;
But, friendships live long in the heart
Because of you they are a part.
